

Some Were Neighbors

Collaboration & Complicity in the Holocaust

Some Were Neighbors: Collaboration & Complicity in the Holocaust addresses one of the central questions about the Holocaust: How was it possible? Created by the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, DC, this 21 panel thought-provoking exhibition examines a variety of motives and pressures that influenced individual choices to act.

Sponsored by the Missouri Holocaust Education and Awareness Commission, this exhibition will be on display during Missouri's Holocaust Education week, April 7 – 11, 2025, at the Missouri State Capitol on the third floor Rotunda. Admission is free.

Missouri State Capitol

201 W. Capitol Ave.

Jefferson City, MO

Open M-F 8:00 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Inquiries? info@moholocaustcommission.org

